1970: A REBIRTH

1970 begins not only a new year, but a new decade and a new hope. Student Council this year has chosen Ferlinghetti's theme "A Renaissance of Wonder" as the goal for education at Bishop's. This Renaissance, this rebirth, has meant striving for an awareness of the role of the individual student in her own education, an awareness of Bishop's identity within the San Diego community, and an awareness of our relationship to the society into which we will graduate. The purpose of El Miradero is to reflect, with personal impressions, the year 1970, a rebirth.

Time it was,

And what a time it was,

It was...

A time of innocence,

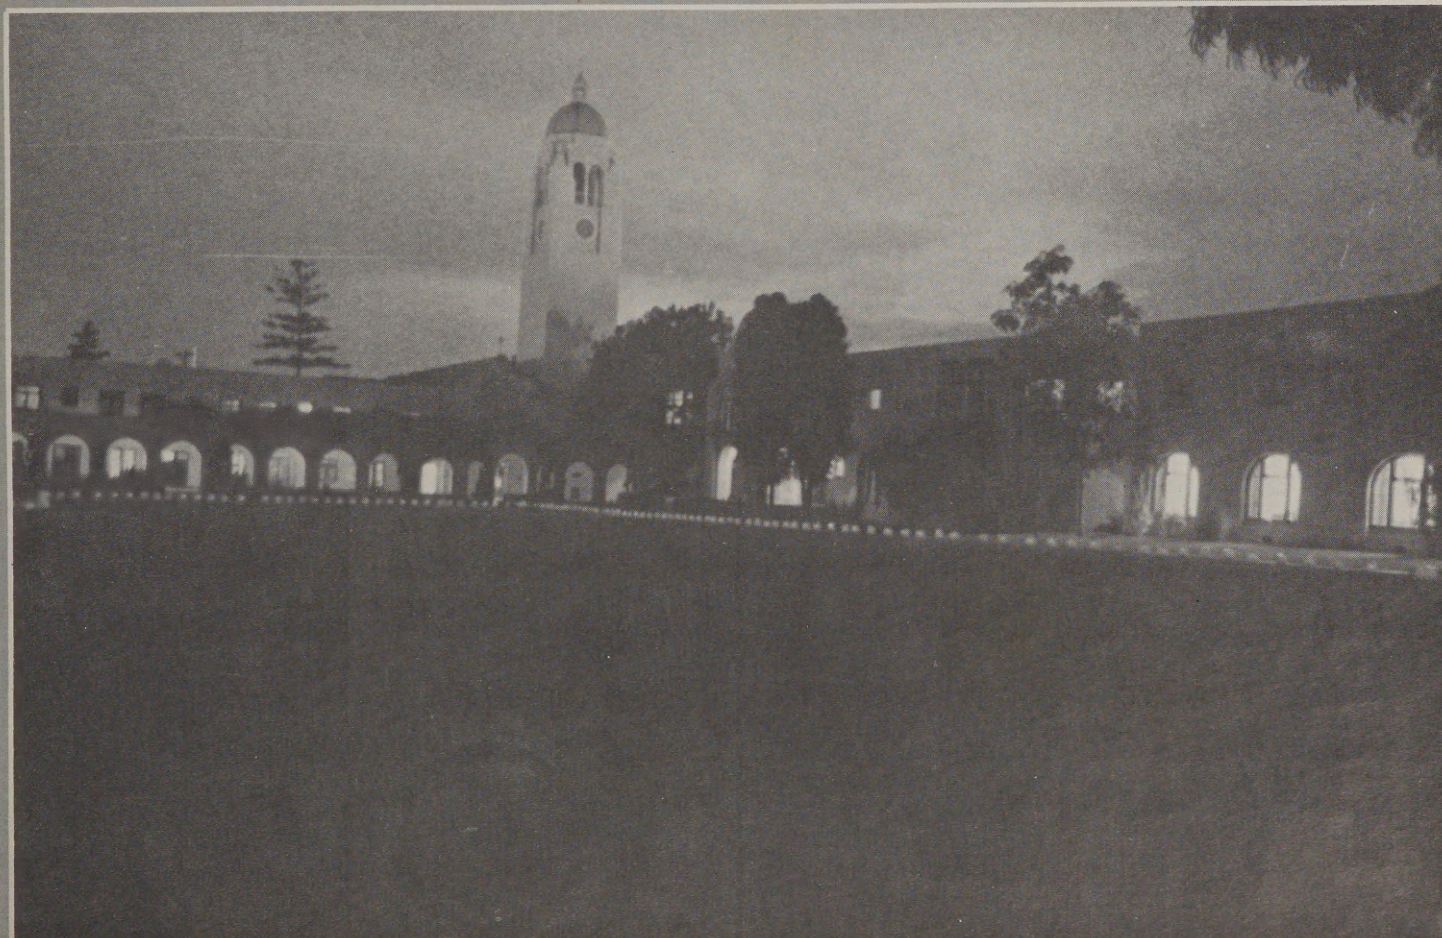

A time of confidences.

Long ago... it must be...

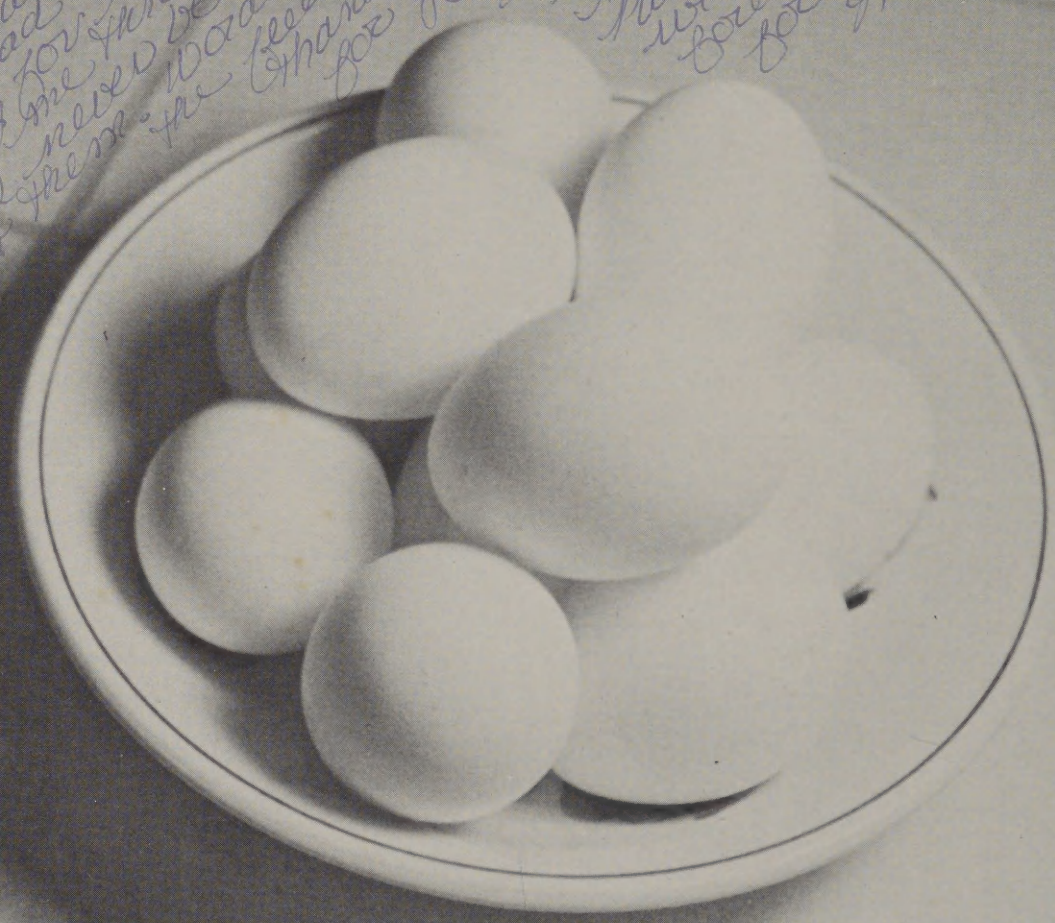

I have a photograph.

Preserve your memories;

They're all that's left you.

Dear Miss Williams,
 what can I say to a person who has given so much to education? what can I say to an adviser, like you? thank you for being such a great adviser. I'll surely miss you next year - but I'll never forget the time we spent together. Thank you for everything.
 All my love,
 Lydia

But by the happiness you give,
The friends you make, the good you do,

Wonder is evoked by knowledge of the past, from an appreciation of all those people and achievements that came before us. A new decade is here; The Senior Class believes that a tribute is due to the past. Our most direct link is with Miss Caroline Cummins, Headmistress, 1921-1953. Those who know her contributions understand that under her leadership, the "Renaissance of Wonder" truly began.

In this yearbook, the Senior Class wishes to honor Miss Cummins, on this, her fiftieth anniversary with The Bishop's School.

DRAMA WORKSHOP PRESENTS

THE HOUSE of BERNARDA ALBA

This year, the Drama Workshop has become, in a sense, renewed. Every member of the organization is involved--an integral part of the whole. More than ever, all of us really care about the success of our endeavors throughout the year.

Our first semester project was THE HOUSE OF BERNARDA ALBA by Federico Garcia Lorca. The play is, in the words of the author, a "photographic document" of the women in the villages of Spain. It is the story of Bernarda Alba and her five sheltered daughters, the eldest of whom is about to marry a man fifteen years her junior. The man, Pepe El Romano, never appears on stage, but he is the focal point of the whole play because all five girls love him in some way. It is the youngest Adela, who is seduced by him and who, under his influence, breaks Bernarda's tyrannical spell. However, death is the price she pays for freedom. In the end, Lorca's play is not so much a tragedy as an ironic statement of hatred, love, respectability, and false pride.

Dear
Miss
Williams,

I've really enjoyed having you as an advisor this year. I know that's the typical expected saying, but I really mean it. I've never enjoyed Bishop's as I have this year and you were very much a part of this enjoyment. I appreciate the patience
you have shown and all you have given to our class. Thank you.

Love,
Linda

DEAR Miss Williams,

Thank you. I KNEW there was something for sticking out the whole six years and that was my senior year, it would mean the most and be the best of all, and it was. Thank you for making it smoother - at times and giving encouragement when needed, and being one of the greatest advisers, not to mention friends. I'll ever know. Thank you.

Love Paige

"It was the best of times, it was the worst of times, it was the age of wisdom, it was the age of foolishness,
it was the epoch of belief, it was the epoch of incredulity, it was the season of Light, it was the spring of Darkness, it was the spring of hope, it was the winter of despair,
we had everything before us, we had nothing before us..."

Dear Miss Williams,

Thank you very much being such a great advisor. It has been fun (!) writing you notes for three years. I hope they weren't too pesky. Good Luck to you for the future. Also. Thank you so much for all the help that you gave us in the Glee Club and choir!

Sincerely,
Lynn McLeod

Well, Dear ol' Rubberface,

It's time for our final, fond farewells. (Sniff-sniff!) I won't forget you, the most gem among administrators and staff - a friend, and a sincere and helpful advisor.

Dear Miss Williams,

Happy birthday,

merry summer, gay 1970's, joyful life, etc.

Dear Miss Williams,
You're the best class advisor that I've ever had. It's been a really great year and it would not have been possible without you.

Dear Miss Williams -

To a dear dear friend of mine who I have come to respect and love very much. I've had a wonderful 2 years here at Bishop's and I want to thank you for all the "big" and "little" things you've done for me and others. No one could ask for someone who cares more, smiles more, laughs more, and loves more than you.
Take care and God bless you and know you are loved! I'll be back to visit — you can't get rid of me that easy. ☺

Love always,
Lynne

Dear Miss Williams -
I hope you are well and happy.
I have been thinking of you a lot lately and wondering how you are getting on.
I have been very busy
with school and work,
but I always find time to think of my friends.
I hope you are all well and happy. I will be back to visit soon.
Love always,
Lynne
